COMPANY PROFILE

Who We Are?

ICPBB stands for International Copyrights Protection Bureau for Brands. We are an independent organization which provides security of intellectual property rights for logo designs all around the world. With our extensive experience of 20 years, we have created successful alliances and partnerships globally. This furnishes a robust network of legal support for all our customers, regardless of what state or country they reside in.

What We Do?

We secure your creative expressions by authenticating your logo design and providing you with its copyrights in the form of a sealed certificate. This certificate serves as your shield against those individuals who are indulged in imitating and counterfeiting your intellectual property on both online or offline mediums.
